

International Workshop

Kant Revisited in Light of New Technology:
Consciousness, Identity, and Public Reason / Judgement

Place: Dragvoll Campus D13 & D14

Time: Monday, March 19, 13:00-18:00 (D13), and Tuesday, March 20, 09:00-14:00 (D14)

Monday 19th of March

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 1200 - 1300 | Lunch |
| 1300 - 1345 | ANNAMARIA CARUSI (University of Oxford) – “Trust and scientific visualisations: the role of the ‘sensus communis’” |
| 1345 - 1430 | DAG ELGESEM (University of Bergen) – “Search engines and the maxim of self preservation of reason” |
| 1430 - 1500 | Coffee |
| 1500 - 1545 | BJØRN MYSKJA (NTNU) – “Nanotechnology and trust: A Kantian Account” |
| 1545 - 1630 | BRIT STRANDHAGEN (NTNU) – “Genius, Creativity, and Aesthetic Reflection in The Critique of Judgement” |
| 1630 - 1715 | MAY THORSETH (NTNU) – “Reflective judgment and enlarged thinking online” |

Tuesday 20th of March

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 0845 - 0900 | Coffee |
| 0900 - 0945 | SUSAN STUART (University of Glasgow) – “From Agency to Apperception, through Kinaesthesia to Cognition and Creation” |
| 0945 - 1030 | JOHNNY SØRAKER (University of Twente) – “Did the Sage of Königsberg Never Try VR? – Some Reflections on Virtual Reality in Light of Kant” |
| 1030 - 1045 | Coffee |
| 1045 - 1130 | RONNY SELBÆK MYHRE (NTNU) – “The Myth of Spontaneity” |
| 1130 - 1200 | CHARLES ESS (Drury University / NTNU) – Commentary |
| 1200 - 1300 | Lunch |
| 1300 - 1400 | Proceedings and future research |

Organising institutions: Programme for Applied Ethics and Dept. of Philosophy, NTNU
Local organisers: Charles Ess and May Thorseth

The workshop is open to anyone interested, and registration is not required.