

Contents

MAY THORSETH
Introduction	vii
Acknowledgments	xiii

PART I

General introduction to the field of Internet research

DAG ELGESEM
On the parallel between the norms of science and the norms of cultures on the Internet	3
CHARLES ESS
Beyond Contemptus Mundi and Cartesian Dualism	13
CHRIS MANN
Generating data online: ethical concerns and challenges for the C21 researcher	31
ANNETTE N. MARKHAM
Critical Junctures and Ethical Choices in Internet Ethnography	51

PART II

Basic topics in some particular contexts

JANNE C.H. BROMSETH
Ethical and methodological challenges in research on net-mediated communication	67
ROE FREMSTEDAL
Recognition between Internet users	87
HEIDI GILSTAD
Ethical questions related to the development of telemedicine	109
CAMILLA HALVARSON & PETER LILLIENGREN
Private explanatory systems and informed consent online	125
CECILIA LÖFBERG
Ethical and Methodological Dilemmas in Research with/on Children and Youths on the Net	141
HELGE RIDDERSTRØM
Ethical challenges in research on youths' personal home pages	155
SVEIN SANDO
Vulnerable bodies as ethical sensors	171
CONTRIBUTORS	189